Tony Gollan,

is one of Australia's leading horse trainers.

In his early days Tony was a talented Rugby player getting a chance to go to Sydney and to try out for South Sydney but unfortunately owing to family circumstances he decided to take on training of racehorses.

He began his training career at the young age of 20 in Toowoomba before moving to Brisbane and establishing himself as a dominant force in Queensland racing.

Gollan achieved his first Group 1 success with Temple of Boom in the 2012 The Galaxy and has since won multiple Queensland Metropolitan Trainers' Premierships.

He has set records for metropolitan winners in a season and has trained numerous top-class horses, including the "Boom brothers" (Temple of Boom and Spirit of Boom), who collectively won 20 races and over $4 million in prize money.

Gollan's success has been consistent, with his stable regularly producing stakes, group & listed winners (including 7 group 1 winners) and competing at the highest levels in Brisbane, Sydney and Melbourne.

He won his first metropolitan trainer's premiership in 2013/2014, broke the late Bruce McLachlan's record for city winners with 79 in 2014/2015, and broke 100 city winners for the first time in 2019/20.

He won his 11th successive Metropolitan trainer's premiership in 2023/24 and is well placed to win the 2024/2025 metropolitan premiership.
