FLIGHTS

A number of domestic and international flights may be included in your tour.. All airfares are subject to the terms and conditions of the airfare. It is your responsibility to contact the airline prior to departure as airlines have the right to reschedule or cancel flights. For significant delays, it is your responsibility to notify the third parties including but not limited to the transfer company, accommodation, tour company and Event organisers as no-shows or significant delays can result in involuntary cancellation. It is prudent to arrive to any significant Event a day ahead, especially if travelling internationally.

All airline tickets must be issued in the name of the passport/photo identity holder. Your name on your passport, visa and other travel documents must all be identical. An incorrect name on a booking may result in an inability to fly, with the booking being cancelled. The application of additional charges and/or cancellation fees may apply.

Some group airfares are not eligible to accrue frequent flyer points (due to discounted group airfares). Please advise your travel consultant if you are a member of the airlines associated frequent flyer program to see if your fare is eligible for frequent flyer point accrual.

Airline taxes are not included in the tour cost as they are continually changing. Any of these charges imposed by the airline will be notified to you at the time of final payment 2 months prior to departure.

PASSPORT, VISAS & VACCINATIONS

It is a requirement that you hold a valid passport with sufficient validity and any required visas for your travel. It is your responsibility to obtain vaccinations and preventative medicines as may be required for the duration of your travel. Any information provided by us is given in good faith.

INSURANCE PROTECTION

The Australian Government strongly recommend you have Comprehensive Travel Insurance to cover all your travel arrangements and Gullivers strongly recommend travellers have a policy in place as soon as they make a payment towards their trip plans. This is the sole responsibility of the traveller. Your insurance protection should at least include cover for cancellation, medical and repatriation expenses, personal injury and accident, death and loss of personal baggage and money and personal liability insurance. Evidence of such insurances should be produced to Gullivers on request.

AUTHORITY & CONDUCT

If you are joining an escorted tour, you undertake to conduct yourself in a manner conducive to good group dynamics. If you act in a manner that threatens or disrupts the safety or enjoyment of others on the tour, the tour leader may, acting reasonably, require that you leave the tour. You will not be entitled to any refund for unused services and you will be responsible for any additional costs you incur.

If you cause any damage to property or injury to person, then you will be responsible for all and any loss or damage incurred by Gullivers. This is irrespective of whether you are travelling on an escorted tour or independently.

Gullivers strongly suggest that you consult the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFAT) website and register (either group or individual) so that you are kept up to date with any travel warnings or advisories that may be in place for your destinations (www.dfat.gov.au). You should also advise DFAT of your travel details such as date of departure and itinerary.

It is essential that all tour participants discuss their personal travel plans with a health professional to ensure you have the correct vaccinations for your trip and any booster doses of childhood vaccinations you may need.
